Brief Route Details / Points of Particular Interest

The route follows open fields initially from Dingestow Church along the valley of the River Trothy for 2km. It then leaves the valley floor and follows fields and lanes in a loop back towards Dingestow Court before, once again dropping to the valley to follow a tributary of the River Trothy back to Dingestow.

Points of interest include the Trothy Valley, Dingestow Church and the remains of Dingestow Castle (which is free to explore).
